Project WILD Educator Training

Tonaquint Nature Center/Park
1851 S. Dixie Dr., St. George

Friday, February 27, 4:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.
Saturday, February 28, 8:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

WHAT IS PROJECT WILD?

Project WILD is a supplementary conservation education program emphasizing wildlife, sponsored by the Utah Division of Wildlife Resources. It is designed to develop awareness, knowledge and skills related to wildlife, people and the environment. It involves kids and animals--the proven formula for generating classroom interest and participation. Activities fulfill many of the Utah State Core Curriculum Standards and Objectives.

WHAT YOU GET!

You will receive the nationally acclaimed Project WILD and Aquatic WILD Activity Guides featuring over 160 activities, plus a wealth of free supplemental resource materials, posters and more. Registration fee is $17.

CREDIT

Project WILD has been approved for one semester hour of graduate credit through Utah State University for $15. One can opt for a certificate of attendance for relicensure points as well.

WHAT TO WEAR AND BRING

Please wear casual, comfortable clothes and sturdy shoes. Some of the activities will be taught outdoors so dress accordingly. Refreshments will be provided during breaks. Participants must attend full workshop.

If you register and then find you are unable to attend, please notify Diana Vos at (801) 538-4719 to cancel your registration so we can allow someone else to take your place.

Registration Form: St. George February 27-28, 2004

Preregistration is necessary in order to attend the Project WILD Workshop. To register, please return this portion of the form and $17.00 (made out to Utah Division of Wildlife Resources) to: Diana Vos, Utah Division of Wildlife Resources, P.O. Box 146301, Salt Lake City, UT 84114-6301. Registration must be submitted before February 18, 2004. You are considered registered for this workshop after sending in this form and the required fee unless you hear from us. No confirmation will be sent out ahead of time.
